

BASIC FIRE FIGHTING AND EXTINGUISHERS

Half-Day Course

Your role in fire fighting

Fire prevention

Fire protection

Basic understanding of fire and the use of extinguishers

Firefighting basics

When not to attempt to fight a fire.

The science of fire.

Oxygen in fire

Heat or Ignition sources

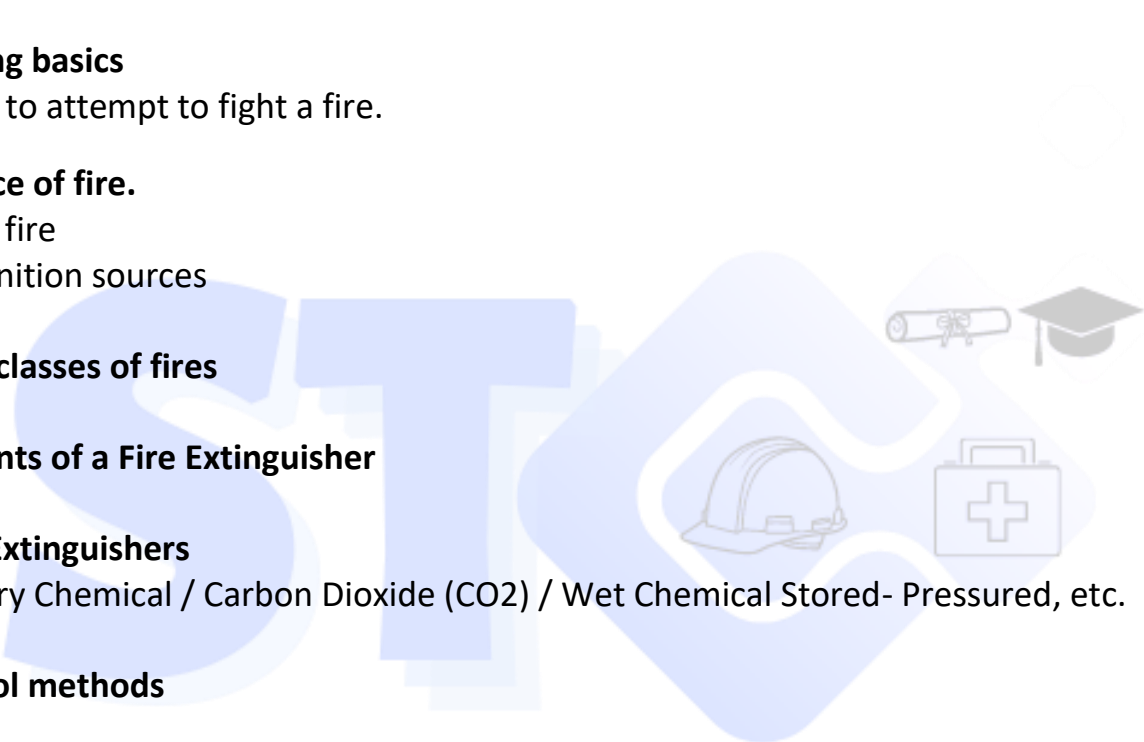

Different classes of fires

Components of a Fire Extinguisher

Types of Extinguishers

Water / Dry Chemical / Carbon Dioxide (CO₂) / Wet Chemical Stored- Pressured, etc.

Fire control methods

☑ Fire extinguisher checks and inspections

☑ Evacuations

Course Outcomes

Students on the course will on completion be able to understand the basic nature of fire, fire prevention systems, and fire fighting equipment.

LGRS-1015-130408 TETA: 12-214